Invaluable Insight into LLCs Featuring updated forms and financial templates now available via download, this comprehensive toolkit provides step-by-step instructions for planning, organizing, forming, operating and maintaining a limited liability company (LLC) in any state. LLCs are one of the most flexible business formations available and for many businesses, offer the best of both worlds. As in partnerships, taxation passes through to the business, avoiding the double taxation problem with corporations. And like corporations, LLCs offer liability protection for owners and their assets. However, LLCs aren't for everyone. To help you make an informed decision, business legal guru Michael Spadaccini provides invaluable insight, offering tips from the pros, practical experience and lists of advantages and disadvantages. This hands-on reference offers:

- Instructions on how to start and maintain an LLC, including detailed requirements for every state
- The pros, cons, and uses of different business formations – including LLCs, corporations, sole proprietorships, and partnerships
- Details on how and when LLCs are best used for minimizing taxes, increasing liability protection and shielding assets
- Contact information and summaries of incorporation laws for the 50 states and Washington, DC, including requirements and costs for creating LLCs.

It has been clear for at least 50 years the disadvantages that small businesses face in competing for U.S. government contracts. The Small Business Act of 1953 created the Small Business Administration (SBA), an independent agency in the executive branch that counsels and assists specific types of small businesses including firms owned by minorities and other socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and firms owned by women. Women-owned small businesses, however, are underrepresented or substantially underrepresented in some industries. In 2002, the SBA Office of Federal Contract Assistance for Women Business Owners (CAWBO) organized a draft study containing a preliminary set of approximations of the representation of women-owned small businesses in federal prime contracts over $25,000 by industry. Because of the past legal challenges to race- and gender-conscious contracting programs at the federal and local levels, the SBA asked the Committee on National Statistics of the National Academies to conduct an independent review of relevant data and estimation methods prior to finalizing the CAWBO study. The Steering Committee on Women-Owned Small Businesses in Federal Contracting was created and charged with holding a workshop to discuss topics including the accuracy of data and methods to estimate the use of women-owned small businesses in federal contracting and the definition of "underrepresentation" and "substantial underrepresentation" in designating industries for which preferential contracting programs might be warranted. Analyzing Information on Women-Owned Small Businesses in Federal Contracting presents the committee's report as well as the recommendations that committees have made.

Government law attorney Steven J. Koprince teaches readers to look beyond winning a piece of the $500 billion pie and concentrate instead on the crucial but complex Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and other rules required for keeping the contract alive and avoiding penalties. The Small-Business Guide to Government Contracts puts a wealth of specialized legal counsel at readers' fingertips, answering the most important compliance questions like: Is a small business really small? Who is eligible for HUBZone, 8(a), SDVO, or WOSB programs? What salaries and benefits must be offered? What ethical requirements must be followed? When does affiliation become a liability? Small-business contracts are both the lifeblood of hundreds of thousands of companies and a quagmire of red tape. No one can afford to be lax with the rules or too harried to heed them. The Small-Business Guide to Government Contracts empowers contractors to avoid missteps, meet their compliance obligations--and keep the pipeline flowing.
