There are as many love spells as there are people who wish to cast them. The most powerful spells are those that influence the chakras (spiritual pathways) of another or create love bonds between two souls. These spells can be challenging and even dangerous, however, so it is often better to rely on magic that embraces the natural world and only subtly creates the opportunity for others to recognize one's inner beauty. There are also spells that rely on a magical focus (like stones, candles, or mirrors) in order to draw the inherent magical forces into a shape moldable by the spell caster. This manner of spell has been in use for ages and, even in an increasingly cynical society, which has largely turned its back on the spirit world, persist today because of their proven effectiveness. There are spells crafted to find the love of others and to open our souls to the love of self; without the confidence in oneself and the love of oneself, how can one hope to harness the energies needed to gain the love of another? There are also spells designed to request the help of the goddess, in her many forms, should one be able to supplicate to her and prove their cause worthy. Included here are a range of love spells of various type and description. These have been drawn from ancient traditions the world over and some will appeal to certain kinds of casters while others may seem at odds with their nature. You must always remember that casting is done with the heart and soul and that magic exists in the world of spirit, so you should only try the magic that speaks to you on a mystical level. If you cannot believe a spell will work, it most certainly will not. Please read the spells in this book and experiment with them responsibly. Love is the most powerful force in the universe and it is unwise to use magic to toy with it unjustly. Keep your heart pure in your pursuits and let your spirit guide you on a righteous path. Blessed Be! Dayanara Blue Star Journalist Walls grew up with parents whose ideals and stubborn nonconformity were their curse and their salvation. Rex and Rose Mary and their four children lived like nomads, moving among Southwest desert towns, camping in the mountains. Rex was a charismatic, brilliant man who, when sober, captured his children's imagination, teaching them how to embrace life fearlessly. Rose Mary painted and wrote and couldn't stand the responsibility of providing for her family. When the money ran out, the Walls retreated to the dismal West Virginia mining town Rex had tried to escape. As the dysfunction escalated, the children had to fend for themselves, supporting one another as they found the resources and will to leave home. Yet Walls describes her parents with deep affection in this tale of unconditional love in a family that, despite its profound flaws, gave her the fiery determination to carve out a successful life. -- From publisher description.

Sadie Gault is eighteen and living with her parents amid the horrors of the Kraków Ghetto during World War II. When the Nazis liquidate the ghetto, Sadie and her pregnant mother are forced to seek refuge in the perilous sewers beneath the city. One day Sadie looks up through a grate and sees a girl about her own age buying flowers. Ella Stepanek is an affluent Polish girl living a life of relative ease with her stepmother, who has developed close alliances with the occupying Germans. Scorned by her friends and longing for her fiancé, who has gone off to war, Ella wanders Kraków restlessly. While on an errand in the market, she catches a glimpse of something moving beneath a grate in the street. Upon closer inspection, she realizes it's a girl hiding. Ella begins to aid Sadie and the two become close, but as the dangers of the war worsen, their lives are set on a collision course that will test them in the face of overwhelming odds.
